

Division of Banking, Insurance and Financial Regulation

Â Â

Welcome to the Division of Banking, Insurance and Financial Regulation of the Office of the Lieutenant Governor. The Division of Banking, Insurance and Financial Regulation regulates the activities of insurance companies and insurance related businesses pursuant to Title 22 of the Virgin Islands Code ("Insurance Code"), and banks, small loan companies and pawnbrokers pursuant to Title 9 of the Virgin Islands Code.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Division of Banking, Insurance and Financial Regulation is to serve and protect the public interest by aggressively enforcing the insurance, securities and banking laws in the Virgin Islands, while at the same time, assisting the insurance and banking industries to better serve the public.

OVERVIEW OF THE DIVISION

As the regulator of financial institutions, pawnbrokers, insurance companies and insurance related businesses, the Division of Banking, Insurance and Financial Regulation issues licenses to insurance companies, insurance producers, adjusters, premium finance companies, air ambulance companies, and small loan companies, and issues special licenses to all banks operating in the territory. The Division also monitors and regulates their activities to ensure compliance with the laws of the territory once they become licensed.
