BULLETIN 2017-12

TO: All Companies Licensed or Authorized to Write Property and Casualty Insurance in the United States Virgin Islands

RE: Extension of deadline to submit first Data Call Relating to Hurricanes Irma and Maria Insurance Claims

As you are aware, Bulletin 2017-09 dated November 9, 2017 was issued by the Honorable Lieutenant Governor Osbert E. Potter, in his capacity as Commissioner of Insurance to provide notification and guidance on reporting requirements relating to the impact of Hurricanes Irma and Maria on the Territory of the United States Virgin Islands.

As many of the insurance companies were unable to submit the requested information due to a glitch in accessing the email, the deadline to submit the requested Data Call report has been extended from Friday, November 17, 2017 to Tuesday, November 21, 2017. We apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused.

Please contact the Division immediately if your company (or group) is unable to comply with the requirements of this data call.

Questions regarding this Bulletin may be directed to the Division of Banking, Insurance and Financial Regulation by calling (340) 774-7166 on the Island of St. Thomas or (340) 773-6459 on the Island of St. Croix.

Dated this ____ day of November 2017 at St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands.

A blue ink signature of Osbert E. Potter, consisting of stylized initials and a long horizontal stroke.

Osbert E. Potter
Lieutenant Governor/Commissioner of Insurance
