LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR ROACH ISSUES A NOTICE OF LOST OR STOLEN NOTARY PUBLIC INSTRUMENTS

Lieutenant Governor Tregenza A. Roach, Esq. advises the Virgin Islands public that the following notarial instruments were lost or stolen on the dates herein referenced and have been revoked to prevent fraudulent use:

Invalid Notarial Instruments

NP 543-22 – Instruments lost on December 9, 2024

NP 594-23 – Instruments stolen on January 13, 2025

NP 731-24 – Instruments stolen on June 29, 2025

The referenced Notary Public (NP) numbers are found on the notarial ink stamp and in some cases, the Notary's embossed seal. They been revoked due to the loss or theft of the referenced instruments. Therefore, all documents notarized after the dates above stated are invalid.

“If you are aware of someone using these lost or stolen instruments or if a notary attempts to notarize a document with the above-referenced NP numbers, please report this violation to the Notaries Public Division in the Office of the Lieutenant Governor at (340) 774-2991, Ext. 4120 as soon as possible.” stated Lieutenant Governor Roach.

All Notaries Public in the United States Virgin Islands are reminded to keep their notarial instruments in a secured location when not in use.
